josippetrusa: @carol_phillips I have to catch up! Haven't had the opportunity to tv watch, go figure lol #genychat carol_phillips: @TylerDurbin Real American culture happens in communities, not the media. Churches, schools, YMCA's, universities, offices. #SM #genychat aloha: RT @GenerationMeh: @nahumg I think the public/private distinction has eroded to the point that if it isn't publicly recognized, it doesn't count. #genychat WriterChanelle: Through the tweets of celebs, big time bloggers, etc... RT @MShahab: @WriterChanelle how did Twitter show you that? #genychat kelly_ashworth: RE: life goals. RT @E_Hanson Going wherever life takes me, helping causes I am passionate about, and making friends along the way #genychat WriterChanelle: RT @jonlinen: #GenYChat @WriterChanelle definitely changes our perspective in a lot of bad ways because it makes people "front" lol

ArrowsWithSoul: @nahumg true, but given the voyeuristic society we live in, it's easy to get swayed by the 'trend' #genychat josippetrusa: @daniellewriter But getting that start is the tricky part #genychat tylerdurbin: YES! RT @carol_phillips: @TylerDurbin Real American culture happens in communities, not media. Churches, schools, YMCAs, offices. #genychat WriterChanelle: @jonlinen You mean act like they're successful when they really aren't? #GenYChat

E_Hanson: Yes! And not just letting it pass by RT @ArrowsWithSoul ...and personal success for gen ys is more abt finding meaning in life #genychat GenYChat: Welcome! RT @ArrowsWithSoul: #genychat gen y here working for a gen x-almost-baby-boomer boss :) steve_campbell: @niltiac And which sites is the most viewed? Facebook :) #genychat carol_phillips: RT @daniellewriter: Q3: We're so connected, it's easier to know what other Gen Ys are doing and hard not to compare yourself #GenYChat GenYChat: RT @nahumg: @carol_phillips @josippetrusa Mayb public nature increases the value of being known & change notion of being popular #GenYChat kelly_ashworth: @MShahab @niltiac started by Gen X but would they be successful w/o Gen Y? I think I could argue either way #genychat niltiac: @MShahab I have no doubt Gen Y will achieve great things. They just haven't really yet, despite getting plenty of cred. #GenYchat kelly_ashworth: RT @daniellewriter: Q3: We're so connected, it's easier to know what other Gen Ys are doing and hard not to compare yourself #GenYChat GenYChat: @nahumg Definitely agree. I think we're going to move away from 15 minutes of fame to that 15 giving you fame #GenYChat steve_campbell: Gen X dominated Twitter because they see the marketing values, while most Gen Yers don't yet. #genychat tylerdurbin: Don't mix up credibility w/ publicity RT @MShahab no doubt GenY will achieve... They just havent, despite getting plenty of cred. #genychat GenYChat: @nahumg I actually agree with that. It takes a while to get there, though. You have to know that only your opinion matters. #GenYChat WriterChanelle: RT @steve_campbell: My dream is to live a location independent lifestyle where I get to travel and do what I love from my laptop #genychat

WriterChanelle: I'm gonna pull a facebook and "like" that @steve_campbell #genychat steve_campbell: @niltiac Google released a statement this week admitting Facebook was number 1. Wish I could find the stats I saw. #genychat WriterChanelle: RT @niltiac: A Baby Boomer invented the World Wide Web. Generation X that made it what it is today. Generation Y just use it. #genychat steve_campbell: @WriterChanelle Thanks. Working on making it a reality :) #genychat niltiac: @kelly_ashworth @MSshahab All products need to renew their customer base with young blood. That's why newspapers have a problem. #genychat ArrowsWithSoul: @McKeenMatt agreed, but what do u think of affirmation? i'm often tempted 2 feel 'surer' abt my success when affirmed by some1 else #genychat WriterChanelle: But we must do something good with it other than "use" it. Sounds so selfish. @niltiac #genychat GenerationMeh: @josippetrusa Have been advocating for looking at life stage over gens for a while now. Little traction, alas. #genychat niltiac: @Steve_Campbell Even so, Facebook would not be successful without the web development of the 1990s. Rides of Gen X coattails. #genychat

WriterChanelle: Thank you for the fantastic questions!! @GenerationMeh #GenYChat niltiac: @MillennialNet Public attention skipped from Baby Boomers to Gen Y. Gen X is a small generation, either overlooked or written off.#genychat GenyChat: @niltiac What about the Boomers in that case? #GenXYBoomerchat? Lol. That's why I have the umbrella as the logo. It's 4 every1 #genychat niltiac: @GenYChat The Boomers have a clear identity and plenty of public attention. Gen X & Y have a lot in common and are a natural fit. #genychat

MillennialNet: @GenerationMeh Oh yea the American Dream is the most recognized brand in the world Lady Liberty has the #PR inscribed right on it #GenYChat

MillennialNet: @niltiac I know it did, #GenX is very accomplished, but #GenY is like 3M, we don't make, we make better. and SIZE matters! #GenYChat niltiac: @GenYChat The name is more powerful than the logo! But when I say Gen X & Y should join forces, I don't just mean on your chat . #genychat niltiac: @MillennialNet In that case, I'll become a demographer and redefine Millennials to be just people who turned 18 in the year 2000! #genychat mizchartreuse: SO TRUE. RT @WriterChanelle: Oh boy...lol RT @steve_campbell: George Carlin - The American Dream <http://youtu.be/acLW1vFO-2Q> #genychat niltiac: @MillennialNet If size matters, Gen Y can increase its size by joining with Gen X. The next generation (Gen Z?) is even bigger! #genychat GenyChat: @niltiac What do you mean? #genychat niltiac: @GenYChat I mean more generally, as a cultural or political force. Talking about Generations X & Y rather than one or the other. #genychat niltiac: @MillennialNet Well 3M of course has existed for over a century. And Post-It note inventor Art Fry is generation before Boomers. #genychat

GenyChat: @niltiac How can we do this? #genychat
